Q1	(10 marks)
(a)	Describe Wordsworth's concept of "rustic life" as presented in the "Preface." How does he justify its suitability for poetry, and to what extent does Coleridge's poetry in "Lyrical Ballads" align with this ideal?	CO2
OR		&
(b)	List the role of nature in Wordsworth's poetry and poetics, as outlined in the "Preface." How does he depict nature as a source of moral and emotional inspiration?	CO1
Q2	(10 marks)
(a)	Explain Wordsworth's views on the poet's role and sensibility. How does he portray the poet as a "man speaking to men," and how does this relate to his emphasis on emotion and experience?	CO2
OR		&
(b)	Identify Coleridge's distinction between "fancy" and "imagination." How does he define each faculty, and what are the implications of this distinction for his theory of poetry?	CO2
Q3	(10marks)
(a)	Describe Coleridge's views on the process of poetic creation. How does the "secondary imagination" "dissolve, diffuse, dissipate, in order to re-create"?	CO2
OR		&
(b)	Examine Woolf's opening statement of Modern Fiction. How does it encapsulate her critique of Edwardian novelists and her vision for modern fiction?	CO4
Q4	(10 marks)
(a)	Discuss Woolf's concept of the "luminous halo" surrounding human consciousness. How does she argue that modern fiction should aim to capture this elusive quality?	CO2
		&

OR		CO4
(b)	Examine Eliot's concept of "tradition." How does he define it, and what is its significance for the individual poet?
Q5	(10 marks)	CO2 & CO4
(a)	Discuss Eliot's concept of criticism as a "common pursuit of true judgment." What does he mean by "true judgment," and how does he envision this pursuit?
OR
(b)	Examine Eliot's emphasis on "impersonality" in criticism. How does he argue that personal preferences and biases should be minimized?
