

End Term (Even) Semester Examination June 2025

Roll no.....

Name of the Course: BAJMC

Semester: II

Name of the Paper: Introduction To Digital Media

Paper Code: BJMC 204

Time: 3 hours

Maximum Marks:100

Note:

- (i) Answer any two of the sub questions a, b and c in each main question
- (ii) Each question carries 20 marks.
- (iii) Each sub question carries 10 marks

Q1. CO1 (2*10=20 Marks)

- a. What are web browsers, and why are they important for digital journalists? List the most commonly used web browsers.
- b. Explain the term 'news portal'. What distinguishes a news portal from a regular news website?
- c. What are the essential components of a digital newsroom, and how do they contribute to efficient news production and distribution?

Q2. CO2 (2*10=20 Marks)

- a. How do social media platforms like Twitter and Facebook facilitate citizen journalism? Discuss the pros and cons of such platforms as news sources.
- b. Explain how the Panama Papers investigation is an example of collaborative journalism.
- c. How can citizen journalism contribute to covering local news that might otherwise be overlooked by traditional media?

Q3. CO3 (2*10=20 Marks)

- a. Evaluate the role of multimedia in enhancing digital journalism.
- b. Analyze the strategies that digital journalists use to optimize content for mobile devices.
- c. Evaluate the impact of affiliate marketing on the monetization strategies of digital journalism websites.

Q4. CO4 (2*10=20 Marks)

- a. List and evaluate the various advertising revenue models used by digital platforms in journalism.
- b. Create an example of a data-driven news story using a dataset. Explain the process of transforming raw data into a compelling narrative.
- c. List and explain various strategies to enhance SEO for digital journalism content.

Q5. CO5 (2*10=20 Marks)

- a. List and evaluate the different types of data used in data journalism.
- b. Analyze the challenges of data cleaning and data accuracy in data journalism. How do journalists ensure that the data they use is free from errors or biases?
- c. Evaluate the impact of online advertising on the editorial independence of digital journalism.