

End Term (Even) Semester Examination May-June 2025

Roll no.....

Name of the Program and semester: BA (JMC) -VI Semester

Name of the Course: India and Contemporary World

Course Code: DSC 606

Time: 3-hour

Maximum Marks: 100

Note:

- (i) All the questions are compulsory.
- (ii) Answer any two sub questions from a, b and c in each main question.
- (iii) Total marks for each question is 20 (twenty).
- (iv) Each sub-question carries 10 marks.

Q1.

(2X10=20 Marks)

- a. International communication is shaped by various political, economic, and cultural factors. Discuss how each of these dimensions influences the way nations interact and share information. CO 1
- b. Communication plays a dual role in the international arena-it can help bridge gaps between nations and foster equality, yet it can also be manipulated as a tool for domination or exploitation. Analyze this dual nature of communication in global contexts, supporting your discussion with concrete examples. CO 1
- c. Propose a set of policy recommendations for a developing nation to reduce internal disparities in media access and participation. Support your stand with rational approach. CO 2

Q2.

(2X10=20 Marks)

- a. Identify and discuss three articles from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights that relate specifically to the right to communication and information. CO 2
- b. Analyze the differences in the roles and influence of international news agencies and regional news syndicates in shaping global public opinion. CO 2
- c. Debate whether social media platforms should be held accountable under international human rights standards for the information shared on their networks. CO 3

Q3.

(2X10=20 Marks)

- a. Suggest innovative strategies that could help bridge the digital divide and ensure more equitable access to information in developing countries. CO 3
- b. Evaluate the relevance of the MacBride Commission's recommendations in today's digital media environment. Are its proposals still applicable? CO 3
- c. Write Short Note On:
1. UNESCO
2. News Agencies CO 2

Q4.

(2X10=20 Marks)

- a. Critically assess whether advancements in communication technology have truly democratized the flow of information or have instead created new forms of inequality. CO 3
- b. Evaluate the effectiveness of regional organizations such as SAARC and ASEAN in fostering media cooperation and cultural exchange among member countries. CO 4
- c. Draft a code of conduct for journalists reporting on sensitive international conflicts, ensuring respect for human rights and professional ethics. CO 4

Q5.

(2X10=20 Marks)

- a. Analyze the foreign policy approaches of India and China in promoting their respective media systems and cultural narratives on the global stage. CO 4

End Term (Even) Semester Examination May-June 2025

- b. Discuss the main objectives and guiding principles of India's foreign policy in recent years. CO 4
- c. Design an awareness campaign to educate citizens about their communication rights as outlined in international human rights documents. CO 4